Dear Father Micciulla,

The Pastor, Reverend Michael P. McLoughlin, has been informed of this appointment and is looking forward to having you assist him in service to the faithful of the Parish.

As you know, the duties and prerogatives of Parochial Vicars are specified in the Diocesan Pastoral Handbook.

I am deeply grateful for all that you do and particularly for all that you are: a priest forever, blessed with gifts that enrich the spiritual lives of the People of God.

Assuring you of my prayerful best wishes as you begin this new work for the Lord and His Church, I am,

Fraternally in Christ,
Cardinal-designate Timothy M. Dolan

Please take the time to visit the St. Stephen's Parish website (www.warwickinfo.net/ststephen/) for a new photo essay on the lives of prominent figures in our religious faith. The photos are taken from the stained glass window above the main altar at St. Stephen's church. Each week a new photo will be presented with an essay of that figure. We hope that you find this project enjoyable and informative.

SUNDAY, JANUARY 22 - SUNDAY, JANUARY 29

Nearly 325,000 children (22% of the children in the 10 counties of the Archdiocese of N.Y.) have difficulty affording food. Since hunger has no season, we ask you to consider joining our "Feeding Our Neighbors Campaign."

1. Donate to support emergency food programs. All money received in our Poor Box the weekends of January 22 & January 29 will be used to support our Warwick Food Pantry and other food pantries in Orange County.
2. Participate in the Food Drive. We will make a special effort to collect non-perishable food the weekends of January 22 and January 29. All food donated will go to the Warwick Food Pantry. Of course we collect food every Sunday - why not bring a donation with you to Mass once a month or more?

Volunteer at our local Ecumenical Council pantry or the food pantry of your choice. Call the United Methodist Church on Forester Avenue (986-1030).

Dear Madam or Sir,
My name is Matthew Juliano. I am a freshman at DeSales University in Center Valley, Pa. Last October I participated in the "Urban Plunge" in Washington, D.C. I had an incredible experience and tell my story to all who will hear it. With the help of my family, I put a presentation together to raise awareness about the homeless epidemic and presented this at my parish. When I told my story, without asking for donations, people started throwing money in my guitar case. By the end of the night we collected $297. It is only right that I return the money to the National Coalition for the Homeless. I hope this generous donation from my parish can help fight homelessness. Sincerely,
